COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—GENERAL TERM.—Before Judges LEGRANGE, DALY, and WOODWARD.

This case was argued. Decision reserved.

John S. Stevens against Cornelius J. Van Wyck.

Judgment affirmed.

In CHAMBERS.—Before Judge DALY.

In the matter of Henry F. Powers, by his attorney of record, Henry White.

HARASSE CORPUS.

By father, to obtain possession of his child, a boy about 2 years of age, alleged to be illegally detained by Mr. W. H. Powers, Capt. of the 1st Regt. of the 1st N.Y. Cavalry, a year ago, leaving four children, one having had her sister suggested to her, it would be well to have her two youngest children, of which Henry is one, provided for, and the mother be required of it to her to give to whom she thought would take care of it, and the sister subsequently gave it to Mr. and Mrs. White highly respectable parties, who are said to take great care of and to have become much attached to it. The plaintiff, the father of the child, although nothing especial is alleged against him, is said to be without the means of supporting them, and that the friends of the child will be compelled to contribute their support and comfort during her illness, and, further, that his father asserted to Mr. and Mrs. White having the child, and told the sister he would give them a paper to that effect. On his part he claims to be able to support the child. Testimony taken.

SUPREME COURT.—Before Judge MORSE.

Application by plaintiff for attachment against Lewis Tappan, Benj. Douglass and Arthur Tappan, refusing to pay $1,000,000 due on a bill of exchange drawn in payment from Huron County, Ohio, and a summons from a Justice of the Supreme Court. The refusal to answer was on the ground that sufficient facts were not recited in the summons. The Judge considers that the proceedings being special, the facts giving jurisdiction should appear on the summons. Motion for attachment denied.

Emmett vs. Powers, agt. Wm. C. Ferris, implied, &c.

On a note. Judgment for defendant for dismissal of plaintiff's complaint, with costs.
